Just a few friendly reminders for our residents....

- Utility Bills will look a little different next quarter, please don't hesitate to contact our office at 204-745-2443 if you have any questions or concerns regarding your utility account.
- Property Tax bills are on their way! If you do not receive yours by the beginning of August please contact our office for a copy.

Taxes are due August 29th, 2025.

- Local pet owners, please remember all pets are to be registered with our office annually as per our Animal Control by-law. Registration is as simple as bringing in your most current vaccination documents and the $15.00 fee per pet.
- Grass clippings, residents please remember to bag your grass clippings, having them blow into our drains can cause them to get blocked and create a backup.

Water Safety!
When near or on
the water

safe communities
carman - dufferin

King's Park is full of fun activities & children are running around this busy time of year!

Please reduce your speed when driving through King's Park!

Are you concerned about SAFETY IN OUR COMMUNITY?

The Manitoba Citizens on Patrol Program is a crime prevention initiative where volunteers act as extra "eyes and ears" for their community and local law enforcement.

The program improves community safety through deterrence, education and awareness.

Making your community safer

Ask yourself...

Do I have a couple of extra hours a month to help make my community safe?

If you answered Yes, then... We're looking for you!
